OUR FACILITATOR

As part of the Proteus Executive team, Grant leads our national Education strategy and oversees National Client Experience strategies – helping take Proteus to leaders around the world. As GM of Education, he mentors and supports our Proteus team of facilitators to be world-class – continually growing, evolving, and delivering learning experiences that drive real behavioural change. Before joining Proteus, Grant held senior L&D and Operational roles across national and international organisations. He brings a great strategic L&D mindset shaped by real-world experience and a deep belief in transformational leadership.

Whether leading a major initiative or in a one-on-one conversation, Grant stays focused on what matters most: building confident leaders and cultures where people can do their best work.

He is a Master communicator and this Masterclass will change the way you communicate and present forever.

THE MASTERCLASS

Getting Yourself And Your Ideas Heard

One of the most important skills that a leader can possess is the ability to communicate effectively. We are often called on to present information or strategy, or maybe to conduct a meeting; not having the appropriate skills can stop us getting an important messages across.

This program has been designed to give participants the communication skills and templates required to effectively deliver the message they want, and to gain maximum impact.

The structures and templates introduced in this program are invaluable for any person wanting to gain confidence and to take that next step in their communication development.
